

Vietnamese National Fund for Children

Compassion Leads to Conversion

The Vietnamese National Fund for Children (VNFC) is the government entity that partners with REAP in providing for the poor children of Vietnam.

REAP works with the Vietnamese government, demonstrating Christ's love and compassion to the people of Vietnam. Until the communist government permits REAP to take the next step, VNFC continues to be an important transitional instrument in achieving Great Commission goals. VNFC is the government entity responsible for all benevolent activity related to children in Vietnam.

Continued on Back

In 1996, REAP was introduced to Vietnam's Vice President and VNFC chairman, Madame Binh. In cooperation with VNFC, REAP

The gift of education is not only for the child but for the future of Vietnam.

Dave Roever

has provided over 3,000 scholarships for students whose education would stop at the sixth grade. Schools have been built and medical clinics co-sponsored. Millions of dollars in food and clothing has been provided.

REAP International
www.daveroeever.org
817-238-2000