With God, All Things Are Possible!

As you can see, not everybody gets to have a good day every day of their lives! My little dog, Benny, is having what you might call a bad day. He does not like to have a bath!

In life, there are many things we don't like to have happen to us, but we don't have control over them. My surgery, number 63, has been covered in so much prayer by so many people that I feel it's only fair to give you the earliest possible report. It's coming up on two weeks since I had surgery, and I'm happy to tell you it was a huge success! For the first time in years, I am pain-free in the shoulder that was almost frozen from so many calcium deposits over the years, which are common in burn recovery patients. I slept all night last night with zero pain! I still have to be very careful not to damage the incision, but I'm glad to tell you that I'm on the road to recovery.

I'm also delighted to tell you that the ministry is being sustained by your faithful and loving gifts. I have several more weeks of downtime, which I cannot produce for the ministry. Some of you may not be aware of the fact that when I go out and earn money, I do not keep any of it. It all goes to the ministry as one-third of the income stream to reach the vision God has given us. The other two streams are sales, which I encourage you to support by visiting our website and making purchases as often as possible, and the third is online giving—not only online, but also through what we nickname “snail mail.”

All three of these income streams form a triangle of success to pay for programs like the one we just finished last week at Eagles Summit Ranch-Texas, near San Antonio. That session was a huge success in saving many marriages from inevitable failure, although we did not win them all. Unfortunately, one couple did not want to be restored.

I do not like being laid up in bed with an estimated recovery time of almost three weeks, but I am resting and regaining some of my strength just by being free from so much pain. God has been so good to me, and the healing touch of Jesus, along with the incredible love of my precious wife, BethAnn, has been beyond belief. I'm so grateful for God and your amazing support. I've come through a very, very difficult time of physical challenge and will come out the other side better than ever! I'll be back on the road soon and look forward to seeing many of you on the upcoming road tours on my calendar. I love you all more than I can ever say. Please continue to support this ministry during the weeks to come as I finish out my time of recovery. We can reach the unreachable because, with God, all things are possible.
