KINGDOM BUSINESS

This is a letter in progress.

I'll continue writing it for several days. It starts in Oahu at Inspire Church, where the life-changing experience of a fast-growing congregation of thousands welcomed my wife, Dr. Beth, and myself with immense love! It is a fantastic church I hope you will visit if you are in Honolulu.

The following day, at 6:30 am, we headed to Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Honolulu (JBPHH) to start a full day of resilience training for the Air Force. This is why we came to Hawaii. Many people think you're on vacation if you're in Hawaii. Not so. We are here doing Kingdom work. We conclude Sunday at Honolulu First Assembly of God Church, then fly home on the "red eye" all-night flight.

Now, to review the military commitment at JBPHH. It's Wednesday night, late. I just came in from my session with the troops—all day with warriors. Mostly, officers in the morning and enlisted in the evening. I honestly compare the experience to my tours downrange in the war zones of the Middle East. These warriors are engaged and ready for my message. I'm SO thankful for your support of the military mission you are sending me on.

I'm so excited about Friday. We are meeting with my Army surgeon, who rebuilt my face at Brooke Army Medical Center. I owe him SO much for the gifted hands that gave back so much of the simple dignity I lost in the injury from Vietnam.

Finally, I have to share the successes of our GLOBAL/REAP INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF DISCIPLESHIP. We are now over 240,000 students in Vietnam alone and 380,000 worldwide in 40 countries and 14 languages. You support a "Kingdom Come" effort that is your best ROI ever.

Thank you for giving to our vision for those who SO desperately need the love of Jesus in their broken world.
