THERE'S A DEAD MAN IN THE HOUSE AND HE'S STINKING TO HIGH HEAVEN

I remember years ago finding a story about a man named Carl Stevens from Knoxville, Illinois, who had died. For eight years, his wife and two children changed his clothes, changed his bedding, and bathed him daily, undoubtedly thinking they could hide his death. It became more and more obvious, probably by the smell, that something was drastically wrong in that house! When people asked questions, a lawyer was brought in and threatened them with lawsuits for harassment if they continued to ask questions. His own mother said she hadn't seen him for years! (You can see for yourself if you Google "Knoxville Mummy").

It's an amazing parallel to the fact that when we sin, we die. The Bible says the wages of sin is death. But we try to hide it. The smell just won't go away. We change our clothes, change our bedding, and tell everyone to quit asking questions or we will sue them for harassment!

Illinois family kept dead dad in bed, cared for him 8 years

KNOXVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The widow and two children of a bookkeeper tended his body for eight years after he died, changing his clothing and bedding as though he were just sick, a sheriff says.

The body of Carl Stevens, which had been reduced to skin and bones, was found last week after a relative who had become suspicious helped authorities gain entrance to his home, officials said.

He had not been seen alive since 1979, but even his mother, Helen Stevens, didn't know he was dead, said Knox County Sheriff's Detective Steve Johnson.

"It's just very, very bizarre," said Sheriff Mark Shearer. "We are currently investigating the religious aspects of this. Let's just say tered nurse, and Kuncce, a dentist in Aurora, on felony charges and returned them to jail.

Stevens was charged with one count of forgery, accused of fabricating a power of attorney for her dead husband in 1984, Shearer said.

Kuncce was charged with a felony count of conspiracy to commit forgery for allegedly signing his name to the document as a witness, the sheriff said.

Stevens, born in 1939, was last seen alive in May, 1979, Shearer said.

Police initially investigated after his employer reported he had not showed up for his bookkeeping job at a Galesburg heating and cooling he had been invited for Thanksgiving but hadn't been allowed upstairs, said Johnson.

Pouch also told authorities he had to be checked to see whether he had a "black soul before he was allowed to enter communications with Carl Stevens through a channeling-like method prior to his admittance to the house," Johnson said.

By working with Pouch, Johnson said authorities finally were able to enter the home Friday. They found Stevens' body lying in bed, as though he were sick, Shearer said.

"He wasn't a wrapped-up, dried out mummy," Shearer said. "He was just lying there in his bed. Although it was obvious he'd been

You really need to read the story! It only takes a minute. Whether it's the White House, our house, or the outhouse, sin stinks and we try to hide it, but the smell just won't go away. There's a dead man in the house and he's stinking to HIGH HEAVEN! God has a sense of smell, and it stinks to high heaven!

Never in modern history has there been a more blatant display and parade of vile acts of violence, sexual debacles, lying, deceit, and corruption from the highest offices in the land! It started in the closet and moved to the cabinet. From the outhouse to the White House. It never ends. The stench is everywhere. It's in houses, churches, schools, and universities. Only a Spiritual Awakening can restore us at this point. No political party can save us. Only Christ and Christ alone. Will we turn our hearts to Him?

My schedule has never been so demanding. Our ministry is being called on in schools, military bases, television media, men's conventions, statewide rallies, the US Border Patrol, special veteran sessions at the Eagles Summit Ranches in Texas and Colorado, and churches coast to coast, from California to Florida, Portland to Philadelphia. My schedule is exhausting. I have a driver to get me around in the ministry coach, but the long hauls are taxing and costly. Please know, when you support this ministry, you are not giving to a lazy, stay-at-home speaker. You're not buying TV airtime to ask for more money for TV airtime. You are putting your hard-earned dollars into a ministry for hard-earned souls. It's about people. It's about you. It's about time to get involved in a ministry that brings eternal ROI!

Thank you for your support, especially your monthly commitments.

If not now, when?

If not you, who?

At this time, my work with the Border Patrol in Texas is moving forward at warp speed. Suicide is on the increase and the agents are calling. I am giving my new book, Forged in Fire, to hundreds of agents and their families. Please consider supporting this endeavor. It is a $15,000 budget.
